Highlights

Smartphone App

The mobile application was developed to facilitate operators in effectively controlling and managing video systems remotely, at any time. It allows for live image viewing, playback of recorded video data, and receipt of remote notifications.

Features

- The software module can open or close potential-free contacts and thus control doors or barriers or execute macros to automate tasks
- The module requires a C-WERK Professional or Premium Camera License
- Allows C-WERK to assess situations in real time by recognizing certain human postures: raised hands, lying or crouching person, arms stretched forward (shooting position), unauthorized turnstile passage, etc.
